

Documentation and Billing Practices to Maximize Reimbursement for IM and IM Home

Learn effective strategies for navigating the complex and often frustrating world of insurance from an abundantly experienced Interactive Metronome (IM) Provider in outpatient private practice.

Course Description

You are providing a valuable service to your clients and the communities you serve, and they are improving by leaps and bounds with Interactive Metronome (IM) and IM Home. Successful reimbursement for these services contributes to the overall success of your practice. Dillen Hartley, OTR/L will draw upon 19 years of experience with the use of IM and IM Home with children and adults in outpatient private practice to guide you through the complex and, at times, frustrating world of billing and insurance reimbursement. This comprehensive course will cover all of the fundamentals specific to billing for IM and IM Home services including documentation, coding, claim submission, private invoicing, telehealth and managing denials. Dillen will answer your specific questions in the last 30 minutes of the course, so come prepared to pick his brain! Contact hours/ASHA CEUs are offered pending successful completion of a written exam at the end of the course. This course is NOT offered for AOTA or PT CEUs.
